Background of the Case:

Aposta Ganha is an online betting platform focused on casino and live casino games. The platform offers a wide range of games, including slots, table games, and live dealer games. The company was founded in 2024 with the goal of providing a safe and secure online betting experience for players in Brazil.

Description of the Case:

Aposta Ganha has been growing rapidly since its launch, with thousands of new players joining the platform every day. However, the company has faced several challenges in its quest to provide the best possible experience for its customers. One of the main challenges has been the high tax rate imposed on online betting in Brazil, which has made it difficult for the company to offer competitive odds and bonuses to its players.

Another challenge has been the lack of awareness about the brand and its offerings among potential customers. Many people in Brazil are still unaware of the existence of Aposta Ganha and the benefits it offers.
