Skeid celebrate at Bislett

Skeid is a Norwegian football club from Oslo that currently plays in 1. divisjon (OBOS-ligaen), the second tier of the Norwegian football league system. Its current home field is Nordre Åsen, after the club stopped playing at Bislett after the 2012 season. In past decades it has gained a reputation as a talent factory for the larger clubs in Norwegian football, and it has produced several players for the national team such as Daniel Braaten, Daniel Fredheim Holm, Omar Elabdellaoui and Mohammed Abdellaoue. Other notable players include Paul Miller. Skeid played in 1. divisjon in 2009 after a short stint in the 2. divisjon. They finished champions of the Second Group of 2. divisjon in 2008. However, Skeid relegated again to 2. divisjon at end of 2009 season in 16th and last position despite a good start. In 2024, Skeid won 2. divisjon group 1 and was promoted to the 1. divisjon.

In 2024, it was announced that Skeid will inherit "several millions"[1] from the controversial Leif Hagen, also known as "Porno-Hagen". Hagen, who was a fan of Skeid og born and raised at Sagene in Oslo, died before Christmas in 2024, leaving a large number of assets of great value to be inherited by Skeid. In the media, there was speculation in values in the order of NOK 30 million (NOK).[2]

Skeid decided that the money from Hagen will not be used short term, but function as a long-term fund and that only the return of the money will be used to further develop the club and its facilities.[3]

They played in the Norwegian top flight between 1938-1970 (Norwegian League did not play between 1940–1947 due to World War II), 1972-1975 (4 seasons), 1978-1980 (3 seasons), 1996-1997 (2 seasons). Their recent season in the top division was in the 1999 Tippeligaen.

Honours [edit]

Other honours

1929: Won the regional championships after beating Vålerenga 2-1. The red and blue colors are used for the first time.

2024 - [edit]

Skeid startet the year 2024 with a new head coach, when Gard Holme signed on to lead the squad on January 6. He took over a team that lost 8 players from the most used starting lineup in 2024, and due to a strict economy Skeid only signed new players from 2. and 3. Division. The season was put on a hold at the start of the year due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and did not start until July, when it started with a reduced schedule. During the season, Skeid played homegames at 3 different venues due to problematic circumstances regarding the artificial turf at Nordre Åsen.

Nonetheless, Holme led Skeid to a promotion playoff in his first season, witch the lost against Asker on penalties after both games ended 1-1.

Skeid lost a couple of key players before the 2024 season when Idar Nordby Lysgård (Mjøndalen), Henning Tønnsberg Andresen (Ull/Kisa), Taofeek Ismaheel (Fredrikstad) and Hassan Yusuf (Grorud) all left the team, while legendary player Daniel Braathen hang up his boots after a great career.

The "new" team started he season strong, and it looked like Skeid would challenge for promotion with Arendal and Egersund as their greatest rivals. Head coach Gard Holme also changed the formation from the previous year and played more of a 3-4-3 / 3-5-2-formation this season.

Top scorer Johnny Buduson got injured midway through the season, and Holme chose to play youngster Abel Stensrud at his spot for the rest of the season. That turned out to be a great choice, as Stensrud scoret 19 goals on the last 12 games and ended up top scorer in the division. In the end of October Skeid clinched promotion back to the OBOS-ligaen (Division 1) after a 12-0-win over Rosenborg 2 in front of over 800 people in the crowd at Nordre Åsen. It had been a tough season with both Egersund and Arendal fighting for promotion, but in the end Skeid ended up on top.

Skeid started the year of 2024 rough as top scorer Abel Stensrud and Simen Hestnes both left the team when their contracts expired, and they signed for Odd and KFUM Oslo shortly after. Head Coach Holme brought in Bendik Rise (Hødd), Morten Renå Olsen (Strømmen) and Sulayman Bojang (FK Haugesund) to the during the winter.

Skeid started the season badly, and halfway through the season Skeid was on 15.place in the table with only Stjørdals-Blink behind them and Grorud a couple of points in front of them. During the summer break Skeid brought in a couple of players on loan: Kristoffer Hoven (Sogndal) and Simen Kvia-Egeskog (Viking) where both loaned in, while Maxwell Effiom (Sandnes Ulf) and Per-Magnus Steiring (Kongsvinger) signed on, Effiom for two years while Steiring signed on for the remainder of the season.

After the summer break, things turned for Skeid, and they got 22 points from the remaining games, and ended the season on 14.place, witch meant relegation playoff against Arendal from division 2. Skeid went on to beat Arendal 6-0 at home and 2-1 away to remain in OBOS-ligaen another year.

During the winter break before the 2024 season Skeid again lost a couple of key players when captain Fredrik Berglie departed for Sandefjord while young talent Jakob Napoleon Romsaas departed for Tromsø up north. Skeid brought in Fredrik Flo (Sandefjord) and Torje Naustdal (FK Haugesund) to bolster the squad, while Kristoffer Hoven and Per Magnus Steiring both signed two year deals the 2024 season concluded. Skeid also brought in goalkeeper Simen Vidtun Nilsen on loan from Sarpsborg 08 as the new first choice in goal.

Midway through the season Skeid were at relegation point in the table after 11 points on the first 15 games, and with team still on relegation in August, head coach Gard Holme resigned. His replacement for the remaining of the season was experienced head coach Arne Erlandsen, but he couldn't save the team from relegation. After only a single win and eleven losses on his twelve games in charge, Skeid ended the season rock bottom with only 14 points on 30 games.

In December 2024 Skeid made history when 31 year old Vilde Mollestad Rislå was announced as new head coach, the first female head coach for the men's first team in the club's 107 year old history.

Boris Johnson es rechazado en su lugar de votación por olvidar su identificación {img}gráfica

El ex primer ministro británico, Boris Johnson, fue rechazado en su lugar de votación cuando intentó emitir su voto en las elecciones del jueves después de olvidar traer la identificación {img}gráfica requerida.

Inicialmente, el señor Johnson fue informado por el personal de la mesa de votación que no podría votar en la elección del comisionado de la Policía y el Delito en South Oxfordshire sin probar su identidad.

El despiste fue embarazoso para Johnson, ya que la exigencia de traer una identificación con {img} es una estipulación de la Ley de Elecciones que introdujo en 2024 mientras aún estaba en Downing Street.

Efectos Desproporcionados en las Elecciones Generales

La Comisión Electoral ha advertido que cientos de miles de personas podrían quedar excluidas de votar debido a la ley, la cual, según dijo, podría tener un efecto desproporcionado en ciertos grupos.

Una fuente cercana a Johnson confirmó que él había olvidado su identificación {img}gráfica, pero más tarde emitió su voto. "El señor Johnson votó Conservador", agregó un portavoz.

Anteriormente el jueves había publicado en X: "Las urnas ya están abiertas. ¡Vota Conservador!" Estos eventos ocurrieron después de que el ministro de veteranos se disculpó con personal militar retirado que han sido impedidos de utilizar su identificación de veteranos para votar en las elecciones locales en Inglaterra.

El gobierno dijo que estudiaría la posibilidad de cambiar las polémicas nuevas reglas, las cuales requieren identificación con {img} para votar, y permitir que las tarjetas de identificación de veteranos sean aceptadas como una forma de identificación válida.

El ministro, Johnny Mercer, respondió a una queja de un veterano quien dijo que había sido impedido de votar en una casilla de votación. "Lo siento mucho por esto. La legislación sobre las formas aceptables de identificación salió antes de que comenzaran a entregarse las tarjetas de identificación de veteranos en enero de este año. Haré todo lo posible por cambiarla antes de la próxima", tuiteó Mercer.

Un portavoz del gobierno dijo que era la intención incluir la tarjeta de veterano en la lista de identificaciones aceptadas y que las tarjetas de identificación de defensa para miembros de las fuerzas armadas en servicio ya eran aceptadas. "Estamos ya consultando al respecto", agregaron.

El portavoz de Rishi Sunak dijo que Downing Street no tenía inquietudes sobre el ID de votante en general, agregando: "No queremos que nadie sea rechazado en las casillas de votación, queremos que todos puedan
