Thierry Henry renuncia como técnico de la sub-21 de Francia

Thierry Henry ha renunciado como entrenador de la sub-21 de Francia después de ganar una medalla de plata en los Juegos Olímpicos de París de este mes. El exfutbolista de 47 años tenía contrato hasta el próximo verano, pero ha optado por dejar su cargo después de un año en el puesto.

"Ganar la medalla de plata en los Juegos Olímpicos por mi país será uno de los mayores orgullos de mi vida", dijo Henry, cuyo equipo perdió la final de París 2024 contra España. "Estoy increíblemente agradecido con la federación, los jugadores, el personal y los aficionados que me permitieron vivir una experiencia mágica."

Antes de su nombramiento por Francia, Henry había trabajado como asistente técnico de Bélgica, con cargos como primer entrenador en el Mónaco y el equipo de la Major League Soccer Montreal Impact.

Philippe Diallo, presidente de la Federación Francesa de Fútbol, dijo: "En nombre de la FFF, me gustaría agradecer a Thierry Henry todo el trabajo que ha realizado como entrenador de la sub-21 y el equipo olímpico."

"Obviamente lamentamos esta decisión, porque Thierry ha logrado los objetivos que se habían fijado ganando una medalla de plata en los Juegos Olímpicos, 40 años después de la medalla olímpica en Los Ángeles."
