How to Play the Game

This is going to be a rough guide on how to play a hand using poker rules, with an example listed below. A hand of No-Limit Texas Hold'em begins with each player receiving two cards facedown, called "hole cards."

Players will always have these options when it's their turn to act: bet, call, raise or fold.

Players can win a hand by using any combination of their two-hole cards and five community cards on the board to form the best five card hand.

Remember, after players receive their cards, a round of "preflop" betting occurs. Each "street," or round after that, has a different name.

Flop – The first three community cards dealt are referred to as "the flop". All remaining players can use these community cards to try and make the best poker hand.

Play continues with a round of betting. The action starts with the first player still in the hand who is to the left of the dealer button.

Turn – After completing the round of betting on the flop, another community card is dealt, called the turn (AKA Fourth Street). A total of two hole cards and four community cards are available for active players to try and make the best five-card hand.

Another round of betting takes place.

Again, the action starts with the first remaining player seated to the left of the button. Play always continues in a clockwise direction. When all remaining players have acted, the betting round ends.

River – The river (AKA Fifth Street) is the fifth and last community card. A final round of betting takes place. If there's a showdown – the point where all action is complete – players turn up their hands. The last player to bet, known as the last aggressor, must show first. Whoever holds the best five-card hand wins the pot, This action completes the hand, moving on to a new one.

Example: In

aR$1/$2 No-Limit Hold'em game, you are first to act after the big blind (more on the blinds below). You are facing aR$2 “blind” bet, So, you can either call that amount, raise it, or fold.

Let’s assume you raise toR$6 holding the AK. Everyone else folds around to the player in the big blind, who puts in the extraR$4 to call.

The flop comes down A56 . The player in the big blind is first to act and can either check or bet.

There’s no need for the to fold as there is no bet. They wind up checking, and you betR$10 with your top pair.

The player in the big blind calls and the K turns. Again, your opponent checks. You betR$25 with two pair. The big blind calls once more and the 2 completes the board on the river.

Your opponent checks, for a third time, and calls when you betR$100.

The action is over, so it’s time to show your cards.

You turn over your two pair (your AK plus the AK6 on the board make your best possible five-card hand).

Your opponent shows he was beat as he only had the AQ for a losing pair of aces. (Their AQ plus AK6 from the board gives them their best possible five-card hand.)

Congratulations, you won a nice pot!

So that’s how a hand works, and you know the poker rules for it, where it gets complicated is how you play your own hand and compete with others. There are a few more things for you to pay attention to, like where the dealer is sitting.

Dealer Button and Blinds

In most games, a dedicated dealer facilitates the dealing. In home poker games, it’s not uncommon for players to rotate the deal among themselves.

If there is a dedicated dealer, a button indicates who has the deal. That button then moves one spot clockwise after each hand. The purpose of the button is to identify where the action should begin each time.

The action always starts with the first person left of the button.

Before any cards are dealt, the player to the direct left of the button must post (pay) the small blind. The player to the left of him must post the big blind.

These “blinds” are forced bets that help give players something chase. Think about it: If there were no blinds in poker, players would never “blind off”. They would never lose chips from always folding preflop.

Players would wait until they had Aces dealt to them, and then go all-in.

For example, if the game

wasR$1-$2 No-Limit Hold’em, the player to the direct left of the button must post aR$1 small blind. The player after that has to pay theR$2 big blind. These are mandatory “blind bets” and must be posted. If a player refuses according to poker rules, they must sit out of the game.

Tournaments vs Cash Games

When you play poker against other players, you do so in one of two formats – tournament or cash game (AKA ring game) and these each have their own unique poker rules.

The basics outline above are the same, but there are four significant differences.

Blinds: In cash games, the blinds are always fixed (i.e. R$1-$2, R$2-$5, etc.) and never increase. While in tournaments, the blinds increase every X-number of minutes, based on the blind structure. They do so to force action and ensure the tournament ends on time. Duration: Cash games are convenient as you can come and go as you please. Tournaments are different. Play continues (according to the blind structure) until a winner is crowned. Chips: In cash games, each chip has a denomination that corresponds to its real-money value. In tournaments, chip denominations typically do not have real-money value. For example, in a R$100 buy-in tournament, you may receive 10,000 units worth of chips. Antes: Antes are like blinds in the sense that they are forced bets taken from players before the start of a hand. They are common in tournaments but do occasionally pop up in cash games. They do not contribute to money used in the first (preflop) round of betting, unlike the blinds.

Antes are merely used to boost the size of the pot preflop. They give players more incentive to fight for the dead money in the middle.

Do note that either "button" or "big blind" antes (one larger-sized ante taken from one player) are replacing traditional antes to save on time. This format is happening especially in tournaments to move the pace of the game along.

As the blinds rotate at the end of each hand, all players will be subject to a button ante, every orbit.

Variants of Poker

While Texas

Hold'em is the most popular form of poker, it is far from the only game. There are dozens of variations, with many catching up on Hold'em's popularity.

Here's a look at some of poker's other variants:

Triunfalismo de la Premier League es poco probable que se disipe pronto, incluso durante un 2024 castigador

Los desempeños en las competiciones de clubes de la UEFA el año pasado fueron decepcionantes. Aunque Rodri fue nombrado jugador del torneo, la Euro 2024 luchó por el polvo de estrellas de la Premier League. En su final, un equipo español con una columna vertebral de Real Sociedad y Athletic Bilbao se merecidamente venció a un equipo de estrellas de la liga inglesa de alto nivel.

Como proveedor de contenido, la Premier League aún puede jactarse sin demasiada censura. La libra esterlina 5 mil millones recibida por derechos nacionales y las libra esterlina 5.05 mil millones desde 2024 hasta 2025 por derechos internacionales superan con creces a sus competidores, aunque en comparación con las libra esterlina 7.7 mil millones por temporada que recibe la NFL, el cuerpo dirigido por Richard Masters aún debe inclinarse.

Los dos productos estadounidenses, la NBA y la NFL, han innovado los acuerdos que Masters et al han seguido, cortando y picando el contenido para las partes que no están dispuestas a pagar una gran rebanada. El acuerdo de la NFL del día de Navidad por dos partidos, valorado en R$150 millones (£116 millones), abrió una nueva puerta para Netflix, el transmisor mundial dominante, para mostrar deportes en vivo. Seguramente seguirán más.

Aun así, dentro del fútbol, la Premier League sigue siendo una competencia de su propia clase. Los €200 millones (£168 millones) que la Bundesliga recibe anualmente de los derechos internacionales apenas superan una décima parte de los €1.9 mil millones de su equivalente inglés.

En segundo lugar está La Liga, muy por encima de sus años Messi-Ronaldo. Vendió los derechos de los acuerdos en el extranjero en 2024 por €897 millones al año. Un acuerdo a largo plazo en los EE. UU. con ESPN hasta 2029, informado que vale R$1.5 mil millones, se extiende sobre ese tiempo. Si el último acuerdo doméstico de La Liga, que se ejecuta hasta 2026-27, fue por €5 mil millones, fue durante cinco años, y no los tres para Inglaterra. Del mismo modo, el último acuerdo doméstico de la Serie A fue por €4.88 mil millones en cinco años. Mientras tanto, en los EE. UU., los derechos de la Serie A, vendidos a CBS, se informaron al New York Times como significativamente menos que el acuerdo anterior firmado en 2024, alrededor de R$60-70 millones anualmente.

¿Existe alguna amenaza para la dominancia de la Premier League? Por ningún medio inmediatamente, aunque la turbulencia en los mercados europeos competidores puede señalar problemas futuros, al igual que la marea de interés propio y mala gestión financiera de los clubes élite. El caos en Ligue 1, que amenaza a los clubes de la primera división francesa con la posible bancarrota en algunos casos, debería servir como una advertencia. La estabilidad de la asociación senior de la Premier League con BSkyB, que data de 1992, apoyada en la última década por BT Sports y luego por el sucesor TNT, no debe darse por sentado.

Los ejecutivos de Ligue 1, desprovistos de Lionel Messi, Neymar y ahora Kylian Mbappé, querían más de €1 mil millones por sus derechos de televisión, pero no encontraron postores. Habiendo rechazado previamente a los socios a largo plazo Canal+, cuya asociación con Ligue 1 se remonta a 1984, y Qatar's BeIn Sport, un socio desde 2011, los ejecutivos optaron por un acuerdo de 2024 con Mediapro que fue retirado por la empresa española después de solo seis meses y condujo a un rescate apresurado. El plato de mendicidad estaba de nuevo hasta este mes, con Canal+ y BeIn no dispuestos a donar.

La semana pasada, un acuerdo combinado de alrededor de €500 millones se hizo con Dazn - el ambicioso transmisor con sede en Londres con carteras nacionales en España, Alemania e Italia, cuya fórmula para el éxito, según los expertos en medios deportivos, es seguir gastando hasta que el dinero vuelva a entrar - y Amazon, quien mostrará un juego a la semana por €100 millones por temporada. Eso fue el 50% de los ingresos por televisión proyectados. Con las finanzas ya dañadas por el error de Mediapro y Covid-19, no es de extrañar que el talento como Leny Yoro de Lille, recientemente firmado por Manchester United, se canjee fácilmente.

Firma de Lille, Leny Yoro, recientemente fichado por Manchester United

Jugador	Equipo anterior	Equipo actual
Leny Yoro	Lille	Manchester United

Mientras tanto, la atracción de Ligue 1 para los transmisores extranjeros se reduce exponencialmente. Un producto estresado siempre será menos comercializable, y para otras compañías, los números no siempre suman. El retiro de BT de la provisión de contenido, la fusión con Discovery para formar TNT, fue la conclusión de una misión para frenar las incursiones de Sky en el negocio de banda ancha y teléfono. Sky, propiedad de Comcast desde 2024 después de que Rupert Murdoch cobrara, puede tener que responder algún día a los vientos en el mundo empresarial estadounidense, ya que la tecnología emergente y los eventos mundiales más allá del deporte tienen su efecto.

¿Qué mata al pavo real de oro? La avaricia encabeza la lista. Los antiguos titulares de la corona de la liga más grande del mundo, la Serie A de la década de 1980 hasta principios de la década de 2000 y La Liga en la era Real Madrid-Barcelona de finales de la década de 2000 hasta mediados de la década de 2010, ambas cayeron en la desgracia económica. ¿Es la Premier League demasiado fuerte para escapar ese destino? Un número de clubes tienen casos financieros y legales pendientes, con Everton, Chelsea y Manchester City a la vanguardia. Solo los ingenuos declararían que no podría suceder aquí.
