De Zerbi left Brighton at the end of the last season after a two-year period of success, which included his highest finish of sixth place in the Premier League and qualification for the European competition for the first time. The Italian strategist has previously worked for other clubs in the Premier League (including Manchester United) and Liverpool before moving to the United Kingdom - his previous jobs included managing Shakhtar Donetsk in Ukraine and Sassuolo.

De Zerbi, 45 years old and who retired after a short contract after leaving the club of Gennaro Gattuso in February. Marseille is expected to reach a final conclusion in the coming days for the agreement with the two countries in the past season: The German coach led St Pauli to promotion to the Bundesliga in the past season.
