Habitantes de Christiania, la famosa enclave hippie de Copenhague, comienzan a desenterrar su calle principal

Los residentes de Christiania, la famosa enclave hippie de Copenhague conocida por su comercio de cannabis, comenzaron a excavar su calle principal el sábado, con la esperanza de deshacerse de las bandas criminales después de los múltiples tiroteos letales.

Después de haber tolerado la venta ilegal de cannabis durante más de 50 años en los antiguos barracones del ejército reclamados por los hippies durante la década de 1970, las autoridades y los residentes de Christiania decidieron este año desenterrar lo que los locales llaman la "Calle Empujadora".

La Ciudad Libre de Christiania se ha desarrollado en una importante atracción turística con más de medio millón de visitantes al año, pero el aumento de la violencia vinculada al tráfico de drogas en el área ha preocupado a los residentes y las autoridades.

El fin de "Pusher Street"

"Siempre hemos dicho que apoyamos el hash libre, pero no es posible", dijo Hulda Mader, portavoz de Christiania. "Queremos que la calle vuelva a ser nuestra".

La policía ha retirado en los últimos años los puestos de cannabis de vez en cuando solo para verlos reconstruidos poco después.

"La Calle Empujadora debe morir para que Christiania viva", dijo la alcaldesa de Copenhague, Sophie Hæstorp Andersen, a Reuters.

"El escenario criminal que hemos visto aquí ha sido tan violento... no podemos tener un Christiania que se desvanezca porque la gente no se atreva a estar aquí y donde veamos a los cristianitas locales amenazadas por codiciosos empujadores y traficantes".

En agosto, un hombre de 30 años fue asesinado a tiros y cuatro más resultaron heridos en las calles de Christiania, el más reciente de varios tiroteos mortales vinculados al crimen organizado. Los lugareños fueron invitados a reclamar los adoquines como recuerdos de la famosa calle el sábado, después de que la policía derribara los stands.

"Para mí, Pusher Street es en realidad lo menos único, ¿no? Es lo que asocio con la violencia, las bandas, el asesinato, las amenazas y todo lo que en realidad son antónimos de lo que es Christiania", dijo Mathilde Brandstrup, una local de Christiania.

La policía danesa permanecerá presente en Christiania y en el área circundante "tanto tiempo como sea necesario" para evitar la venta de drogas ilícitas, dijo el subjefe superintendente Simon Hansen.

Los residentes de Christiania viven autonombradamente con reglas autodenom...
