Experience Next-Level Roulette at 32Red!

There's arguably no game more synonymous with the casino experience than roulette. The thrill of watching the ball dance its way across the different numbers, hoping it lands on your selection, is hard to match. This is why this classic hasn't just stood the test of time, it continues to thrive in the online gambling sphere. Along with being able to experience the game in its most traditional form, we have carefully curated a range of different roulette games for our players to enjoy. This includes live and turbo versions that help spice up the action!

An Introduction to Online Roulette

While its origins are unclear, it is said that roulette as we know it dates all the way back to the 18th century in France. Once it made its way to casinos across the country and the rest of Europe, the game quickly became a favourite with gamblers. Its simplicity to the point where a player can just pick their lucky number makes it instantly accessible, while the excitement of waiting for the ball to fall into a pocket boosts both anticipation levels and heart rates!

These qualities meant the game made a seamless transition to the online gaming world. Online roulette is undoubtedly one of the most popular table games around. For it to achieve this fame, it also doesn't have to change up the formula that made it such a hit hundreds of years ago. There are different versions of the game available, but plenty of players at 32Red stick with the traditional experience.

How to Play

If

you are a beginner and wondering how to play online roulette, you're in luck for two reasons. Firstly, the game's straightforward nature means you won't have your face stuck in an instruction manual trying to figure out how it works. Secondly, we have made a quick breakdown of how to play this iconic table game.

The action starts when the croupier invites you to place your bets. Be quick as they won't wait around for you to make a decision! You can bet on numbers 0-36 (American tables also have a 00), Red or Black, Odd or Even, High or Low, Dozens, Split, Street, and Corner.

To prevent any confusion, here's what those options mean:

- Single number (35:1 odds): Pick the right number.
- Red or Black (1:1 odds): Select the right colour.
- High or Low (1:1 odds):

Pick whether the winning number is between 1-18 or 19-36.

- Dozens (2:1 odds): Bet on if the winning number is between 1-12, 13-24, or 25-36.
- Split (17:1 odds): Pick two adjacent numbers.
- Street (11:1 odds): Bet on an entire line with three numbers.

Corner (8:1 odds): Pick a corner with four connected numbers.

Every table will have defined minimum and maximum bet amounts. However, you are free to bet on as many options as you wish. While far from wise, you could decide to bet on every number except for two, hope it doesn't land on the excluded options, and make a tiny gain if it hits your picks!

Once the croupier spins the roulette wheel and releases the ball, it won't be long before they declare "No more bets". As this indicates, you are no longer allowed to make any further selections for this round. The round concludes once the ball settles into a pocket on the wheel.

If you correctly predict the outcome, the payout can vary drastically depending on your option. If you staked £10 on "Red" for instance and the ball landed on "Red 16", you would get £20 back in total. Yet in the same scenario, if you had picked "16" and placed a £10 bet, you would receive £360 in total.

The odds listed above will remain the same when playing traditional online roulette games. However, these odds and the available betting options can differ if you play a more modern variation of the game. Take Lightning Roulette as an example. If the lightning strikes, it can assign up to five numbers with a bumper 500x multiplier.

The

Best Online Roulette Providers

In our effort to supply the best roulette games for our players, we offer an assortment of titles to cover every angle. This has been achieved by partnering with the world's best gambling game developers. From Evolution Gaming to Real Dealer Studios, these developers know how to produce online roulette games that stick with the formula players love and feature enough twists to keep them on their toes.

Traditional and Modern Experiences

Whether you want to play a traditional or modern game of this table game, you can do both at 32Red. As far as the traditional experience goes, we have games that follow both European and American rules. Although, if we were to recommend one of the two, we'd have to plump with the European version. Due to the American adaptation having an additional pocket on the wheel, the return to player is higher for its European counterpart.

Do you find the traditional experience of the ball spinning around and around... and around the wheel too slow? In that case, recent release Turbo Auto Roulette might be more to your speed. As the name suggests, rounds are streamlined and fast, and the sci-fi backdrop helps to create the perfect setting for a turbo-charged experience. There are also added features you typically won't see on a traditional table, including Special Bets, Racetrack Bets, and an autoplay option.

Live Online Gaming

For a truly traditional experience, you would have to head to a physical casino, stand at a table, and stare probingly at the croupier as they spin the ball, right? While correct to a certain degree, the real-life experience of playing has never been closer to being accurately replicated at home thanks to live online roulette games.

With the way it works, you are able to watch and interact with a real-life croupier. No random number generators are involved. The game then runs exactly as you would expect when at the Casino. Place your bet, ask any questions you may have about betting limits and options, watch as the wheel and ball are spun respectively, and wait for the croupier to inform the table that 'No more bets' can be placed. If the ball lands on your selection, you can celebrate the win with others sitting around the (virtual) table.

Best of all, you can sample this immersive, life-like experience from the comfort of your home. Stay in your pyjamas, slouch on the couch, and visit the Casino at your leisure.

One of our most popular live game options is Instant Roulette Live. As the name suggests, this title provides fast thrills despite being played live. Uniquely, you are given an unlimited period of time to place your bets. Yet once you have pushed those chips onto your selections and pressed the "Play" button, the action ramps up dramatically. You are transported to the next available wheel that's spinning. There are 12 wheels synchronised together, and this leads to results happening every 12-18 seconds. There's no waiting around to see if you have won or lost with your bet!

This casino classic is one of the easiest to get started with, so you won't feel out of your depth when contemplating what number, colour, or other selection to go with when making your bets.

If traditional roulette isn't to your fancy, we have other titles that add exciting features, tempting betting features, and a faster pace to proceedings. We are also always on the lookout for new games to add to our ever-growing library, so it's worth checking back on the regular to see what new titles have been added for you to enjoy.

Whenever a new game is added to our packed roster, we always ensure it functions seamlessly on all devices. We understand the importance of gaming on the go in this day and age, so each title has to work just as well on mobile as it does on desktop. Léon Marchand Establece Nuevo Récord Olímpico en la Final de 200m Mariposa

A tres longitudes del final de la final de los 200m mariposa masculina, Léon Marchand parecía haber alcanzado finalmente los límites exteriores de su extraordinario talento. Estaba compitiendo contra el campeón mundial y olímpico húngaro Kristof Milak, y estaba perdiendo. En las carreras de natación de larga distancia, suceden lentamente y luego, de repente. Hay esperanza todo el camino hasta el punto en que se vuelve irresistiblemente obvio que no hay, y los 17.000 fanáticos franceses en La Défense Arena comenzaban a quedarse callados cuando se dieron cuenta de que Marchand iba a terminar segundo.

Milak había estado unos pies adelante a los 100m, pero su ventaja había crecido a casi una longitud de cuerpo para el momento en que llegaron a la última vuelta.

Bueno, la plata no está tan mal. Marchand ya había ganado un oro la semana pasada después de todo, en los 400m individual medley, y esta final era solo la primera de los dos que iba a competir esa misma noche. Menos de dos horas después, iba a correr de nuevo en la final de los 200m pecho. Lo que en sí mismo era una hazaña única. Nadie ha ganado medallas en ambas disciplinas, el pecho y la mariposa, en un solo Juegos, no Mark Spitz, no Michael Phelps, no Ryan Lochte. De hecho, a lo largo de todo ese tiempo y todos esos Juegos, solo un atleta había llegado siquiera a las finales en ambas disciplinas, y eso fue en 1956.

World Aquatics incluso tuvo que reorganizar el programa para que Marchand pudiera intentarlo. Las carreras estaban programadas para correr una detrás de la otra porque simplemente no se les ocurrió que alguien intentaría tomar ambos eventos, mucho menos Marchand, quien nunca había competido en el pecho en un campeonato internacional. La dificultad absurda de lo que estaba tratando de hacer se hizo evidente en esos mismos momentos iniciales, cuando Milak, quien devora el agua como un cocodrilo hambriento hace una escuela de peces, se alejó cada vez más en la delantera.

Y entonces sucedió.

Todo el que estuvo allí puede decirte exactamente qué "eso" fue. Pero tendrían que ver la carrera una y otra vez para decirte cómo, y aún así no tendría mucho sentido. Un momento Marchand estaba rezagado, y luego simplemente no lo estaba. En los 25m después de la última vuelta, simplemente se deslizó por Milak, cuyo thrashing desesperado se hizo aún más frenético a medida que Marchand se movió al frente. No solo lo venció. También tomó su récord olímpico, también, en 1min 51.21seg. Fue una gran mejora personal, más de un segundo más rápido de lo que había nadado alguna vez el evento.

Léon Marchand adelanta a Kristof Milak en la final de los 200m mariposa.

Sin embargo, nadie en el estadio lo sabía al principio. El ambiente había sido febril todo el día, tan ansioso por liberarse como las nubes de tormenta que se acumulaban sobre él. Finalmente se rompió cuando Marchand llegó a la última longitud. Los andamios resonaron y temblaron, y el locutor del estadio fue completamente ahogado por todos los que gritaban y chillaban el nombre de Marchand delirantemente. Tomó una bocanada de aire, levantó la mano y hizo una salida rápida por el lado izquierdo para su calentamiento. Reapareció una hora después para recoger su medalla.

Y luego, lo hizo todo de nuevo. Oro más, tiempo personal más rápido, récord olímpico más. Esta vez fue Marchand quien lideró desde el principio, y sin importar cuánto lo intentara el ex campeón Zac Stubblety-Cook, no lo alcanzó. Lo convirtió en algo más como una coronación. Ya lo llaman Le Roi Léon, y su largo, ondulante, pecho fue una manera elegante de acercarse al trono.

Este niño delgado, tímido, seguro de sí mismo, con su sonrisa traviesa y un mechón de cabello rubio rizado, está a la altura de todo. Parecía una larga probabilidad al ingresar a los Juegos, cuando era un campeón mundial y un poseedor de récords mundiales, pero casi completamente sin pruebas frente a una multitud. Nunca había ganado una medalla olímpica, mucho menos intentarlo frente a millones de fanáticos que estaban seguros de que lo haría. Aquí en París, hay una  de 600 pies de él que corre derecho hasta el lado de la única torre de oficinas en los límites de la ciudad. Es un peso terrible, pero lo lleva como Gene Kelly lo hizo con su paraguas. Marchand tiene agua de piscina en la sangre, sus padres ambos compitieron por Francia en los 200m medley; su madre, Céline, en Barcelona en 1992, su padre, Xavier, en Atlanta 1996 y Sydney 2000. Ellos, junto con una pequeña banda de entrenadores de confianza, incluidos los mentores de Phelps Bob Bowman, han hecho un trabajo maravilloso al traerlo. Pero el talento es suyo, y solo suyo, y es glorioso.
