Minnesota Vikings cornerback Khyree Jackson was killed in a car accident at the age of 24.

"We are devastated by the news of Khyree Jackson's death after an accident during the day", said the Vikings, old bet9ja com mobile sign up announced. "Our thoughts are with the family and friends; teammates and coaches as well as all the victims of this tragic incident".

A Maryland State Police officer told TMZ that Jackson was killed along with two friends, Isaiah Hazel and Anthony Lytton, when his Dodge Charger was involved in a collision with a car on the morning of Saturday (24) (the accident occurred near Michaels' 'S High Marlboro). Police told the site that an Infiniti Q50 tried to change lanes at high speed to avoid the car without being hit by the other person.

Jackson played American college football for Fort Scott, Alabama and Oregon before the Vikings selected him in the fourth round of this year's draft. Michael was named First Team All Pac-12 old bet9ja com mobile sign up old bet9ja com mobile sign up last season with the Ducks. During his time in the state of Massachusetts, he played in the National Championship 2024.

He took a long path to the NFL as the pandemic interrupted his schedule, and he briefly left to work at a store.

He was also a good video game player, enough so that he considered a career in it. "For a few seconds, football was a bit nebulous", he said definitively. Jackson told Associated Press last month.

Jackson was a popular member of the Vikings in the short time he spent with the team, where he was known for his enthusiastic personality.

"His confidence and personable nature immediately attracted his teammates", said Vikings coach Kevin O'Connell on Saturday. "In our short time together, it was evident that Khyree would become a great professional player, but the most impressive thing was his desire to be one of the best in the world."
