Manchester City say they were not as close to signing Cristiano Ronaldo as he says they were.

City explored the option of signing Ronaldo at the end of the summer 2024 transfer window before Sir Alex Ferguson intervened and persuaded the Portuguese forward to re-sign for Manchester United.

Now, Ronaldo has sent shockwaves through the red side of Manchester with an outspoken interview with Piers Morgan, where he has made a number of critical claims against United's owners, management, players and ambition.

He also discussed his prospective move to City, saying: "Well, honestly, it was close. It's something they spoke [about] a lot and [Pep] Guardiola said two weeks ago, I guess, that they tried hard to have me.

"But as you know, as my history [was] in Manchester United, your heart, your feeling... make the difference. And of course, as well, Sir Alex Ferguson. I was surprised... but it was a conscious decision. Because the heart speaks, speaking loud in that moment. I think [Ferguson] was the key. It was the difference in that moment, but I cannot be loyal if I will, I wouldn't say that Manchester City wasn't close," Ronaldo said.

"I spoke with him [Ferguson]. He said to me that, 'It's impossible for you to come to Manchester City'. And I say, 'OK, Boss'. So I took the decisions and... it was a good decision."

City were interested in signing Ronaldo, but deny trying hard to bring him to the Etihad to the extent Ronaldo claims, and Guardiola has previously denied that City would have signed the forward if he hadn't signed for United. The Blues went without a striker for the 2024/22 season, and then signed Erling Haaland this summer who has 23 goals in his first 18 appearances for the club.
